Associate VP finalists to appear at forums

Five finalists for the position of associate vice president for student development will appear at open forums, speaking on a topic of their choice and answering questions from the audience.

All forums will be from 8:30 to 9:30 am in UU 220, except the April 7 session, which will be in the Staff Dining Room. Refreshments will be provided.

The schedule:

- ♦ March 14: Nancy Kane, associate dean, College of Arts & Sciences, and assistant professor of communication, George Mason University, Fairfax, Va.
- ♦ March 17: Denise Campbell, director, policy development and quality of work/life, UC San Diego.
- ♦ March 29: Kathleen Kashima, executive director, administrative services, Cal State Hayward.
- ♦ March 31: Randy Harrell, assistant to the vice president, student services, Cal State San Bernardino.
- ♦ April 7: Arthur Byrd, vice president, student services, Allan Hancock College.

Humor in the Workplace theme of wellness fair

The faculty and staff and family members are invited to a Health and Wellness Fair from noon to 1 pm Wednesday, March 15, in UU 220.

Humor in the Workplace is the theme of the event, where employees and family members can:

- ♦ Get information and techniques on putting humor into the workplace.
- ♦ Learn about the lighter, humorous side of red tape and bureaucracy.
- ♦ Win the door prize – a bicycle.
- ♦ Get materials from participating campus departments.
- ♦ Talk to representatives from Health

Net and get information on home safety and stress.

- ♦ Work out on a stationary bicycle to test stamina and endurance.
- ♦ Have their blood pressure checked and body fat measured. (Free ice cream for the fit and trim, frozen yogurt for all others.)

The fair is sponsored by the Employee Assistance Program and coordinated by various campus departments and organizations.

For more information, call EAP at ext. O-EAP (0327).

Human Subjects committee to meet

Interested faculty and staff members are invited to a Human Subjects Committee meeting at 2 pm Friday, March 10, in Adm. 133.

Committee members will review a draft of a campus statement of Policies for the Use of Human Subjects in Research. For more information call Laura King of the Psychology and Human Development Department at ext. 6131 or Susan Opava, dean of research and graduate programs, ext. 1508.

Retirement reception

The campus community is invited to a retirement reception for Jan Gould, media library assistant in Audiovisual Services, from 2 to 4 pm Monday, March 13, in Room 13 in the Education Building. Gould has worked at Cal Poly 35 years.

Staff Council to meet

The next Staff Council meeting is scheduled at 1 pm Tuesday, March 14, in UU 220.

Sedletzky

Retired professor of architecture Marcel Sedletzky died of heart failure Feb. 12.

He began teaching at Cal Poly in 1972 and retired in 1991. Friends wishing to contact his wife, Barbara, should call the Architecture Department at ext. 1316.

He and Barbara lived in Bahia Kino, Mexico. He is survived by a son, two daughters, and two sons-in-law.

Farewell reception

A farewell reception for Petra Valenzuela of the Records office will be held today (March 10) from 9 to 11:30 am in Adm. 133. Valenzuela came to Cal Poly in 1981. She has accepted a position in the Human Resources office at CSU, Monterey Bay.

Workplace violence topic of workshop

Preventing Workplace Violence, a workshop sponsored by Human Resources, is scheduled from 10 am to noon Tuesday, March 28, in UU 220.

Presented by Tom Mitchell and Ray Berrett of Public Safety Services, the workshop will focus on early warning signs of potentially violent behavior, techniques for defusing and managing dangerous situations, obtaining assistance, Public Safety's role, work-site security, and strategies for dealing with violent incidents.

To enroll, call Joan Lund of Human Resources at ext. 6563 or e-mail du427@oasis.

Disabled employees who need services or accommodations in order to participate in the workshop should call Human Resources.
